Dear Sister Coleman;

Please excuse my tardy reply to your letter of August 4. I can appreciate the situation you describe in your letter and hope that you are in the midst of enjoying the kind of growth that can insure a full-time preacher for the congregation there.

Unfortunately, all of the funds that I have available for contributions are given to the local church where I am a member and to other good works going on within our brotherhood. My suggestion would be for you to contact congregations in your vicinity asking their help in the matter outlined in your letter. If there is any other way that I can be of assistance outside of actual financial contributions, I will glad to hear from you.

I send you and all your brothers and sisters in Christ my very best regards and prayers.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
